Letter of approval for the translation of the ESPEN practical guideline: Home enteral nutrition into Italian language

March, 17th 2022

Dear Professor Zanetti,

thank you very much for the translation of the “ESPEN practical guideline: Home enteral nutrition” into the Italian language. We appreciate very much the work you and your colleagues have done.

The translated version was checked by the ESPEN guideline office. The rules were followed adequately; thus, we officially approve the Italian version of the “ESPEN practical guideline: Home enteral nutrition”.

With kind regards,

Stephan C. Bischoff
