Letter of approval for the translation of the ESPEN practical guideline: Clinical nutrition in cancer into Italian language

April 15th, 2021

Dear Professor Zanetti,

Dear Michela,

thank you very much for the translation of the “ESPEN practical guideline: Clinical nutrition in Cancer” into the Italian language. We appreciate very much the work you and your colleagues have done.

The translated version was checked by the ESPEN guideline office. The rules were followed adequately; thus, we officially approve the Italian version of the “ESPEN practical guideline: Clinical nutrition in cancer”.

With kind regards,

Stephan C. Bischoff
