Letter of approval for the translation of the ESPEN practical guideline: Home enteral nutrition into Italian language

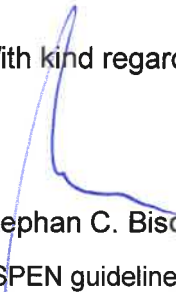

January, 8th 2025

Dear Dr. Lezo, dear Dr. Chiarotto,

thank you very much for the translation of the “ESPEN guideline on Clinical Nutrition in Inflammatory Bowel Disease” into the Italian language. We appreciate very much the work you and your colleagues have done.

The translated version was checked by the ESPEN guideline office. The rules were followed adequately; thus, we officially approve the Italian version of the “ESPEN guideline on Clinical Nutrition in Inflammatory Bowel Disease”.

With kind regards,

Stephan C. Bischoff
ESPEN guideline officer
